

Summer 23-24 Primary MFL Subject Leader Network Meeting

13 June 2024

MFL primary subject leader network meetings will bring colleagues together to understand and share great practice in developing MFL in primary schools and to facilitate regular and meaningful collaboration.

MFL Advisers, Adam Clements, and Kerry Yates, will lead the meeting alongside some guest speakers from Hampshire primary schools who will share their successes in building their foreign language provision.

Topics for the meeting:

- Easy and effective assessment in the primary classroom.
- Bringing languages to life for your students.

The session will focus on:

- The role of assessment within the primary phase.
- Ideas for easy and effective assessment in speaking, listening, reading, and writing.
- Sharing of HIAS age related expectations and resources to support Hampshire primary schools' curriculum.
- Ideas for bringing languages to life and improving cultural enrichment on a whole school basis.

Learning outcomes:

- To provide support for the development of subject knowledge and curricula for MFL primary subject leads and teachers to consider when planning in the short, medium, and long-term.
- To introduce subject colleagues to one another and to begin developing strong and lasting collaboration at county and local level.
- To enable primary subject leaders to feel confident in designing effective assessment opportunities and ways to enhance students' cultural awareness and understanding.
